Living with Roommates Doesn't Have to be Stressful

Roommate Helper gives you the tools you need for communication and collaboration and more harmonious living
Meet the Crew

Joe, Bill, and Frank are all incoming freshman at Brandeis University. Joe and Bill are starting in September, and Frank is a midyear.

Joe and Bill each just got a letter saying that they are going to be roommates! Frank doesn't know who he'll be living with yet.

Joe has just learned about this cool new website called Roommate Helper, and he figures that now is the perfect time to try it out!
